Letters . . . to the editor

BASINGSTOKE SNOW DAY – 1ST FEBRUARY

The Burton family would like to say a massive THANKYOU to these 4 teenagers, for helping to push the cars up the hill by St Marks school after we got stuck on our way home from a family funeral. I am sure other drivers appreciated their help too as they were helping all cars that got stuck for well over an hour.

So thank you to Ben Fernandez, Taylor Ross, Matt Longley, Abbie Stephens

My wife and I would like to thank the many people who stopped and helped us push our car up Danebury Road during the heavy snowfall on 1 February. We were totally stuck and would not have got home without the help of the many good Samaritans.

It is wonderful that total strangers can be so kind, it restored our faith in human nature!

Kind regards

I.A. Evans, Meadowridge
